Acoustic Guitar Concert

1:00 pm | BMH-BJ, 560 S. Monaco
Parkway, Denver

Enjoy the unique sounds of musician Eric Roberts that come from a melding of instruments—from the classical guitar, fretless bass and guitar synthesizer to the mandolin and the bandura (a Ukrainian instrument akin to the harp). He will entertain with a variety of musical styles including traditional classical guitar, jazz standards, Brazilian bossa nova, Nuevo flamenco and original tunes. In partnership with BMH-BJ.

March

Jewish Ghost Stories: Mysterious Tales of Ancient Ancestors, Wandering Spirits
& Reincarnating Souls

11:00 am | Feldman Mortuary,
1673 York Street, Denver

Many people are unaware of Judaism's rich tradition of life after death. In the storytelling traditions of Jewish folk religion and mysticism are extensive teachings on the afterlife journey of the soul, which enters the invisible worlds populated by ghosts, lost souls, haunting spirits, dybbuks and heavenly angelic guides. In partnership with Feldman Mortuary, Hebrew Educational Alliance and Erickson Monuments.

RSVP: Gabriel, 720.382.7842, GSanders@KavodSeniorLife.org or KavodSeniorLife.org/signup

WEDNESDAY

20

March

The Diary of Anne Frank at the Arvada Center

11:45 am | pick up at Hebrew
Educational Alliance, 3600 S. Ivanhoe
Street, Denver | 1:00 pm performance

In Wendy Kesselman's adaptation, we meet the full Anne; imperfect, funny, longing to become a woman and hopeful for a future she will never see. Thirteen-year-old Anne Frank wrote to understand herself and the horrors of being Jewish in Nazi-occupied Amsterdam. In doing so she created one of the most powerful stories of the 20th century. Cost: $30 includes theater ticket and transportation. In partnership with Hebrew Educational Alliance.

RSVP: Rebecca, 720.382.7848, RGershten@KavodSeniorLife.org or KavodSeniorLife.org/signup
