Please note that it is your responsibility to call your insurance provider and verify the specific benefits, coverage, co-payments, deductibles, specialist coverage or other out-of-pocket expenses you may incur prior to your visit.

Q How do I make an appointment?

Patients who have not been seen before at University of Colorado Medicine (any location) will need call 720.382.7800 to schedule a new patient visit for their first appointment.

Q Is there a new patient fee?

There is not necessarily a new patient fee, but a new patient visit is longer than a normal one and therefore has a higher associated charge. It is likely you will have a higher out-of-pocket expense for an initial visit. However, if you have been seen at Anschutz Medical Campus Seniors Clinic, you will only require a new patient visit if you are seeing a new physician.

Q What information is needed to set up a new patient visit?

- Legal & preferred name
- Mailing & email address and phone number
- Date of birth (DOB) and gender
- Social Security Number (SSN)
- Marital status
- Insurance information, including "name on card" if different from legal name
- Guarantor information
- Preferred language/interpreter requirement
- Race, ethnicity & religion
- Emergency contact

Q If I switch my PCP to the CU clinic, will I be able to stay with specialists I have used in the past?

It depends on your insurance. You will need to contact your insurance provider to understand which providers and specialists would be covered.

Q Which doctors will be working at the clinic?

We are delighted to share some information on the three medical doctors and their hours of service below.

Q Is the clinic offered only for Kavod residents or for others too?

The clinic offers services to the general community, as well as Kavod residents.

Q What if I have other questions?

Contact the CU Appointment Line at 720.382.7800 or Mandie Bircham, Director of Health and Wellness at Kavod at 720.382.7838.
